2023 PINOT NOIR PERILUNE VINEYARD

The Perilune Vineyard lies in a pocket canyon along Highway 246 in the rugged and windswept Sta. Rita Hills. Perilune features a gorgeous array of steep hillsides and valley floor sections that are a winemaker's dream when it comes to winemaking and blending. Planted in 2017, this vineyard quickly became one of our favorite components for the Sta. Rita Hills blend and the very best barrels were deemed worthy of a single vineyard bottling.

VINTAGE NOTES

Like many areas in California, the Winter and Spring gave us much needed relief from drought, and in the case of the Sta. Rita Hills, the amount was a record. This rain leached through the soil profile and liberated micronutrients, leading to strong vines that enjoyed a cool Spring and Summer. The 2023 vintage proved to be the coolest since 2011, with October providing a brief warmup that kicked off the harvest, which began on October 7th and did not finish until early November. Overall, the entire Sta. Rita Hills winegrowing community is thrilled with what 2023 yielded. The wines are incredibly fresh, with velvet tannins and that beautiful bright, oceanic freshness that Sta. Rita Hills Pinot Noirs provide. The wines are packed with flavor and elegant, with a balance that will age gracefully for many years.
